You are an adviser to President John Adams. He has asked you to take the facts from the story and give him your advice about what to do. Do you think he should go to war with France or should he try to avoid war? Please give your opinion and explain how it is based on facts from the story.

_____/6 points